This large estate has kept many of its original features. Set on a peaceful plot of land of 30,000 sqm, surrounded by nature. The house itself has 10 bedrooms and still has many of its original features including an olive press, mallorican kitchen and outbuildings which can be converted to more accommodation. There is also a large room upstairs which can be used as a studio and large entertaining area. This house is a blank canvas with a wide range of opportunities.
